

MOMENTUM 94.7 CYCLE CHALLENGE RIDE FOR BICYCLES

This year we're encouraging you to Ride for a Purpose and in so doing, help us to mobilise communities with bicycles. By simply combining your passion with our cause you can help us to put at least 250 Qhubeka Buffalo bicycles into rural communities.

All we need from you as a cyclist is to volunteer to ride the Momentum 94.7 Cycle Challenge and raise funds for Qhubeka. We would also love you to share your excitement about this challenge with friends and family. And if you dare, challenge those who are not doing the race to sponsor each km that you complete.

Qhubeka has just 250 Charity entries available for the Momentum 94.7 Cycle Challenge so don't miss out on being part of this exciting cycling event.

What will my Qhubeka entry give me?

The cost of a Qhubeka Entry is R2650.00. This does not include your actual entry fee but it does include:

- The cost of one Qhubeka bicycle and cycling pack for distribution into our various rural work-to-earn projects. For every additional R2000.00 raised, you will contribute another bicycle and cycling pack.
- Free Club Qhubeka membership for one year following entry.
- Being part of a special starting batch made up of incredible people like you who are riding for a Purpose. The anticipated starting time for your batch is currently at 08h00.
- An invitation to attend the Qhubeka Pasta Party taking place on Friday 15th November 2013 at Da Vincenzo in Kyalami where Team MTN-Qhubeka will be in attendance and Team Principal, Doug Ryder, will give an overview of their first year as pro-continental team. At the Pasta Party you will receive your race pack including race number.
- In addition, you will be given a special edition Qhubeka cycling jersey to be worn on race day.
- An opportunity to ride the Cycle Challenge in one of our three Qhubeka "busses/groups" (Sub-5hr/Firstimer, Sub-4hr, Sub-3) lead by Team MTN-Qhubeka procyclists
- A training program and tips prepared by the Team MTN-Qhubeka Pro Coach, Dr Carol Austin of ACTIVEWORX
- Access to training rides through MTN Club 100.
